JUDGE OLDS'S SUCCESSOR.

Governor Matthews Makes Public the Appointment Judge Joseph S. Dailey.

Governor Matthews returned from Jeffersonville yesterday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, and, after arriving at his office, made public the appointment of Judge Joseph S. Daily to the Supreme Bench, to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Judge Olas, which appointment the Journal had made public yesterday morning. The Governor said that he had not intended making the announcement public until today, owing to several considerations in the case, but as the matter had been published in the Journal he saw no good in withholding it. He also said that he had not sent for Judge Daily, as had been stated, but had simply written him that all others who were applicants for the position had had personal interviews with him, and that he would also like to talk with Judge Daily. That letter was sent to Bluffton, where Judge Daily resides, but the latter was holding court at Hartford City, and it was forwarded to him there. He at once adjourned court and came to this city. He was then given the asserance that he would receive the ap-

Judge Dailey is forty-nine years of age, and has been well and favorably known in the northern part of the State for years as a lawyer. His success in his profession has been signal. When appointed to the posi-Twenty-eighth judicial circuit, its docket was far behind, and it is said of him that he has disposed of the cases in the most rapid manner. He is said to be a careful student, not only of matters appertaining to his profession, but of all others as well. and methodical and precise in his actions upon the bench. He is also said to be popular man in his party, and would probably have been nominated by it for the position which he has now accepted at the next State convention. The other candidates for the position were Judges Robert Lowry, Samuel Hench, T. E. Ellison and Allen Zollars, of Fort Waye; Thomas Mar-shall, of Columbia City; D. W. McKee, of Connersville, and C. V. Henry, of Marion.

UNDER THE PATROLMEN'S NOSES.

Owner of a Fruit Stand Robbed of $200 by Bold Sneak Thieves.

A very bold and audacious robbery occurred on Illinois street a few days ago, and by it John Carrigo, the keeper of a fruit stand near the Union Station, is loser $200. The robbery was committed right under the noses of the patrolmen on the beat, and probably for this reason did not become generally known till yesterday afternoon. The two officers were standing in front of the fruit stand trying to persuade Carrigo to give up "two bits" for a ticket of admission to the police baseball game to be played here in a short time. While the officers were endeavoring to drive a bargain with the proprietor the thieves slipped into the fruit stand from the rear and stole the money from a trunk and departed without their presence having been discovered by either the officers or Carrigo. When the lose was discovered it was reported to the police, but so chagrined were they that nothing was said of it, but they went on a still hunt for the bold, bad burglars. Thus far they have not succeeded in running them down or even in discovering any clew upon which

TRIED TO MURDER HIS SON

Thomas Muntz Assaults His Boy Richard with the Family Hatchet.

The Victim Was Asleep at the Time-Two Painful, but Not Fatal, Wounds Inflicted by the Old Man.

Richard and Thomas Muntz, delegates to the Democratic convention last night, were represented in the session by their first alternates. The Muntzes reside at No. 131 Elm street, and are father and son, Richard, aged twenty-five, and Thomas, bearing the gray hairs of more than fifty years. The absence of the Elm-street delegation was due to their incarceration in the police station last night on the double charge of assault and battery. Richard, the son, was at a decided disadvantage in the melee with his father, and displays two uglylooking gashes on his anatomy, which he says were inflicted by his parent.

About 4 o'clock vesterday evening patrolman Mathy, who does night duty, was sauntering along Elm street in citizen's clothes, when his attention was called to the violent agitation around the home of Thomas Muntz, and investigated. Finding evidence of a severe battle he arrested both men and looked them up. The son has his side of the story, which sheds an unsavory light about the actions of his father. The young man avers that he was out with ward workers nearly all day yesterday, and when he went home late in the afternoon he sought his couch, feeling a fit subject for sleep. Directly his slumbers were broken by the entrance into the room of the elder Muntz, who, with a curse, fell upon him with a hatchet. His father was intoxicated, he says, and before he could protect himself he was dealt two blows. A wicked gash across the stomach and one on the right ankle were in evidence that the old gentleman had lost none of the prowess of his good right arm. The father claims that he was impelled to assault his son because the latter had applied to him a vile epithet which he felt called upon to resent. The police are authority for the statement that the rela-tions between the two men have for a long time been very unfilial, and for the past month they have been keeping up a series of disturbances. The injuries suffered by

TRIED TO TAKE HER LIFE.

Mattie James, a Young Woman, Attempts Suicide with Morphine.

Dr. Terrill, of the City Dispensary, was hurriedly called to No. 241 Kentucky avenue, last night, by the report of an attempted suicide. The physician found Mattie James, aged twenty-two, in the stupor which usually follows an overdose of morphine, and set about at once to save the girl's life. After an hour's rigid treatment Miss James was informed that she would live, and it was then ascertained that she bad swallowed 10 cents' worth of the drug. The patient was being attended by two or three young girls and two young men when the physician arrived, but no one could offer any probable cause for the act. The victim refused to make a statement, and had little to say of herself.

TWO NOTABLE FUNERALS.

Remains of Mrs. Charles E. Coffin Laid to Rest in Crown Hill.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Charles E. Coffin were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the family residence, on the corner of Pennsylvania and Seventh streets. The several rooms and halls were filled with triends. In the front parlor was the casket, resting on a beautiful pail of cloth thickly covered with smilax, roses lilies and white peas. Surrounding it and in all the rooms were magnificent floral tributes, the last remembrances from the many friends. The services were conducted by Rev. H. A. Cleveland, pastor of Meridian-street Church, where Mrs. Coffin was a prominent member, and by Rev. Joseph A. Milburn, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, where Mrs. Coffin's parents are members. Mr. Cleveland gave an historical sketch of Mrs. Coffin and spoke of her many accomplishments and graces; of her work in the Flower Mission, Training School for Nurses, Art Association and other societies, as well as her activity in church life. Mr. Milburn's remarks were of a consolotary nature to the family and friends. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Meridian-street Church quartet, Mrs. Anna Walker, Miss Sadie Walker, Wr. Willard and Mr. Steinhilber, with Mr. C. F. Hansen as pianist. The quartet sang "Lead, Kindly Light," and Miss Walkersang "Angels, Ever Bright and Fair." The conclusion of the services was held at Crown Hill, The pall-bearers were: Mr. J. C. Shaffer, Mr. W. J. Richards, Mr. A. J. Beveridge, Mr. John N. Carey, Mr. W. H. Coleman, Mr. H. P. Wasson, Mr. Walter Williams and Mr. W. F. Elhott, and the pall of flowers was carried by Messrs. Her-man B. Sayles, Joseph Swain, Hugh R. Richards, Edwin A. Thayer, Roy Van Camp and Pierre DeVay. A great many friends accompanied the family to the cemetery.

Funeral of Mrs. Win. C. Van Arsdel. The funeral services of Mrs. William C. Van Arsdel were held in the Central-avenue Methodist Episcopal Church yesterday afternoon. The spacious auditorium was well filled with the members of the church and other friends with whom Mrs. Van Aradel has been associated during a long residence in this city. The pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. Buchtel, preached a very impressive and appropriate sermon from II Timothy, i. 10: "But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Savior, Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel." The hymns, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "Rock of Ages," were sung by a choir consisting of Mrs. Wade, Mrs. Tevis, Misses Barry and Conner and Mesers. Van Wie and Powell. Mrs. Wade also gave as a solo "Calvary." by Rodney. A great many floral offerings were received, amongst them beautiful designs from the Commercial Trave and Association of Indiana, with which Mr. Van Aradel has Woman's Fereign Missionary Society of the Central-avenue Church, the Sunday school class of Mr. George W. Powell (form-erly taught by Mrs. Van Aradel), also by the Chicago and Indianapolis representa-tives of the New York Life Insurance Company. The pallbearers were Wm. D. Cooper, E. F. Ritter, Wm. F. Henley, Wm. T. Brown, George W. Powell and Wm. H. Smith.

Why They Did Not Build.

M. O'Connor & Co., wholesale grocers, who purchased ground on the Big Four tracks and Maryland street, intending to erect a large storage house thereon, have abandoned the idea, so slow has the Board of Public Works been in the matter of permitting them to lay a switch to their ground, and vesterday they leased the Peoris & Eastern freight depot, on South Tennessee street, for a storage house. The building is 265 feet long, constructed of brick, slate roof, and well adapted for the purpose contemplated, and has a sidetrack and other conveniences.

Commissioners' Allowances The County Commissioners met and allowed bills for the month of June. They allowed the German Orphans' Home $1,397.75 for board of children for the past three months. Sheriff Emmett was allowed $582,60 for the board of prisoners during the month of June. Other bills for county institutions were allowed, aggregating $1,000.

Governor Matthews Inspects It-Escape of

The board of trustees of the Prison South held a meeting at Jeffersonville yesterday. which was attended by Governor Matthews. Only matters of routine business came before it. It elected Dr. Patten, of Jeffersonville, prison physician, and Rev. Strauss, of that place, prison chaplain.

The Governor reported the condition of affairs at the prison all that could be expected of it, and the work on the new wall which is being erected as progressing in a rapid manner. The wall, when completed will be about 1,200 feet in length and 23 in height. It is of solid stone masonry and brick work, and will be covered with a roof for the protection of the guards in severe weather.

The Governor said that he made a tour of inspection, and that he was importuned on all sides by the prisoners for pardons. One case called to his attention was that of a man named Ulysses Clark, who was sent up for an eighteen months' term for petit larceny, about nine months ago, and who is gradually dying of consumption. The Governor has written to his parents at Terre Haut e, andif they are able and willing to take care of him until he dies he will be pardoned at once.

Attollcail on Monday night, which was attended by the Governor, it was found that one of the convicts had escaped. He was a life man and is known as a desperate character. He had been employed on the construction of the wall, and it was supposed that he had stolen some citizens' clothing from out of one of the contractors' rooms and slipped through the gate in that manner. This is the fourth time that he has made an attempt to break loose. He ran the guards last winter, though they fired half a hundred shots at him, got to the town, and, drawing a huge knife that he had secured in some unaccountable manner, out a horse loose from an express wagon and got away on it. He was captured three or four days later, having nearly frozen to death in the woods. Eight convicts have escaped from the Prison South within the past year, and only three of them have been recaptured.

MISS PREBLE'S DISAPPEARANCE.

Started Ostensibly to Visit Relatives at Richmond, but Never Got There.

Minnie M. Preble, aged twenty years, is missing from No. 21 Garfield place. She was a member of the household of Mr. Jones, of the Baldwin Music Company, and on June 16, nearly a month ago, left home with the ostensible purpose of visiting at Richmond, where her brother resides. She was supposed to be a Richmond until yes-terday, when a letter from her relatives there announced her nonappearance.

Mr. Jones, her employer, at once insti-tuted search for the missing girl, and yes-terday evening placed the police depart-ment in possession of the facts of her disappearance. A photograph of Miss Preble shows her to be a pretty girl. When preparing to leave she carefully packed a trunk with an extensive outfit of clothing, and intended remaining out of the city for two weeks.

He asks damages in the sum of $2,000 and relief in injunction.

Increase the Tariff on Luxuries. To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal:

The opinion is prevalant that the present unhappy financial condition of the country was primarily caused by the outflow of gold to settle the balance of trade, which has been for some time steadily against us. Why not compel the return of this gold? Our imports consist in large part of the luxuries of life which we can do without, while our exports are principally the necessities of life which the people on the other side cannot do without. Why not raise the tariff so high on these articles of luxury that they cannot be imfrom us the necessities of life, and the balance of trade turn in our favor and our gold return to settle it? If this would restore confidence and enable the business of the country to go ahead again, would not such legislation benefit the many poor, while the few that are rich would suffer INDIANAPOLIS, July 11.

TALK ABOUT FORECLOSUBE

Rumor that Holders of Defaulted Bonds Are Seeking to Enforce Payment.

And as Yet No Arrangements Are Made to Meet Them-"Business Administration," However, Has Hopes.

A rumor was prevalent yesterday in banking circles that a number of defaulted city bonds had been sent to a local bank for collection, and that this bank had served notice upon the city authorities that unless the money was produced at once they would be placed in the hands of an attorney and suit brought for collection. In such case the city would, of course, have to raise the money in short order or submit to the appointment of a receiver. The city officials seen declared that they did not desire to discuss the matter, and City Attorney Jones asked that no mention be made of it. Officials of the bank to which it was said the bonds had been sent declined to talk. Yesterday afternoon F. A. W. Davis, the Indianapolis representative of the life insurance company which got such a pretty free "ad" by offering to lend money to the city, received a telegram from the officials of the company in New York, stating that the company would lend the city money necessary to relieve it of its present embarrassment at a rate of 6 per cent. Treasurer Gibbs will be here shortly, and until that, time it is not definitely known what the company which proposes to help the Sullivanites out of their tangle will do. No assurances have been received that the outstanding bonds will be taken up. The telegram sent by Treasurer Gibbs to the Mayor only stated that the company would lend the city money for current purposes. It would seem that the company was not fully advised as to the nature of the Sullivan dilemma. The letter from Mr. Gibbs will not reach the city until to-day. Mr. Davis says that the matter of taking up the city's outstanding bonds has not ret been considered.

Butchers Fined.

Upon affidavits filed by members of the Retail Merchants' Commercial Association Justice Daniels yesterday fined Dick Cayton and Hugh O'Connell, proprietors of meat markets, $1 and costs each, for selling goods on Sunday. Neither of the defendants offered any evidence in defense. They were undecided as to whether they would appeal to a higher court, and were released on their own recognizance till to-day, when they will either pay the fine assessed against them or file an appeal bond.
